FACULTY SENATE
Jonathan Sturm, President
Tim Day, President-Elect
Annemarie Butler, Secretary

The Faculty Senate was created by the General Faculty to conduct its business. As the representative of the General Faculty, the Faculty Senate has legislative responsibility for educational policies and procedures of the university, including admission and graduation requirements, curriculum and course revisions, new degree programs, and grading procedures. It also recommends candidates for diplomas, degrees, and certificates to be conferred by the president. As its part in shared governance, the Senate plays an advisory role in other university matters and facilitates communication and conflict resolution within the university community. Each department elects one senator as its representative, and at-large senators are elected by each college, for a total of 80 faculty senators plus the officers.

PROFESSIONAL AND SCIENTIFIC COUNCIL
Clayton Johnson, President
Jessica Bell, President-Elect
Melissa Gruhn, Secretary/Treasurer

The Iowa State University Professional and Scientific Council is an elected university body that serves as a resource and advocate for Professional and Scientific employees. The Professional and Scientific Council identifies the needs of its constituents, provides information and advice in response to those needs, recommends policies and procedures to the University administration that benefit Professional and Scientific employees, and assists in fulfilling the mission of Iowa State University. The Council is comprised of seven elected officers and 40 representatives from the areas of Academic Affairs, Business and Finance, the President’s Office, and Student Affairs.
